VOL.66 CANYON, TEXAS THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1961 NO.23

College Students Arriving For Opening of Semester

New Car to Be Given Away At First Buff Home Game

A brand new 1962 Convair Monza automobile will be given away at half time of the game between the West Texas State College Buffaloes and Brigham Young the night of September 23.

This information came this week from Frank Kimbrough, West Texas State athletic director.

Kimbrough said everyone attending the game will have an opportunity to win. The first night of the season has been designated as "Amarillo Night." The gate prize is being given by Amarillo business firms.

Helping with the drawing will be members of the Buffalo Quarterback Club. Drawing for the winner will be the man who has sold the most season tickets.

Two prizes are being awarded in the season ticket selling contest. Both first and second prizes are expense-paid trips with the Buffaloes to an out-of-town football game.

Top man will, of course, get first choice.

Leading in sales is Jess Tucker of Amarillo.

Tickets to the opening game are on sale at the Buffalo field house, Kimbrough reported.

Participating in giving the automobile are Amarillo National Bank, Blackburn Brothers, Casey Carpet Co., Plains Chevrolet, American National Bank, The Globe-News, White & Kirk, The Hub, Thomsen-King Insurance, Dee's Pharmacy, The Amarillo Citizen, Shur-Fine Foods, Amarillo First National Bank and possibly others.

Wants Money --Not Clothes

Area Red Cross officials Wednesday said no request has been made for food and clothing from the stricken area in the path of Hurricane Carla.

Warehouse facilities are not available in the area it was pointed out.

A fund raising drive will begin soon over the state to raise the Texas quota of $1, 000,000.00. officials reported.

Gimme a Hand --But Not Hard

Helping hands turned into swinging fists last week as two men had an argument over loading a "tin horn," according to Sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston.

Trouble started when Charles Knox who lives northeast of Happy stopped his pickup to help two Lubbock workers load a "tin horn"--a corrugated iron pipe used in drainage ditches.

During the chore, the sheriff said an argument started and the result was charges being filed against Jimmy Rinehart for simple assault.

Earlier, a story leaked out to Amarillo news media that a Randall deputy was involved in the disturbance and was shot. A quick investigation revealed that it had only been a misunderstanding of the three men.

South Amarillo Growing Faster Than North Area

Population is on the boom in south Amarillo, according to Frank Bemis of the Texas employment service, who is conducting a survey for the Texas Senate.

Bemis said that the Randall portion of Amarillo has grown by 5,887 since the census while Potter portion has gained only 615.

Randall County is presently ranking third in percentage of growth throughout the state. Only other two counties exceeding Randall are Andrews and Midland.

Canyon has grown by another 180 persons, since the census, Bill York, city manager, estimated. He based his figures on added water meters.

Lee Foster, school tax-assessor-collector, estimated that the rural area has grown by 100 people.

Dogs Beware! Commissioners Considering Control Plan

Canyon may establish an animal control plan, according to Bill York, city manager.

Veterinarian J.L. Markham met with city commissioners Thursday evening to discuss such a plan and said he will cooperate in every way in setting up such a program. No action was taken on the matter but Dr. Markham, York and L.D. Caldwell, chief of police were asked to outline a program and present it to commissioners at a later meeting.

Franchise with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company was renewed at the meeting.

In other business commissioners set electrician's license cost at $50 and a $10 a year renewal fee. Previously the electric board had recommended an initial charge of $100.

Clarence E. Thompson was named mayor pro tem. Delbert Lowes assumed duties of mayor upon resignation of John Taylor and the mayor pro tem post has been vacated since. Paul Lindsey was appointed to fill the unexpired commissioner post left vacant.

The commission instructed York to notify the Chamber of Commerce of a joint meeting September 25 to talk with a planning consultant from Dallas. Also, the Chamber will jointly discuss with commissioners the possibility of establishing a beautification program at the traffic interchange on the expressway. According to the highway department, cities have to supply water for such a program.

York was authorized to advertise for bids on a mobil radio for the police department.

In final business J.D. Byrd, Charles Hillier and Tom Brasher were reappointed to the housing authority board.

Classes Start This Afternoon

College activites are moving at a brisk pace this week as enrollment is now in progress for the fall semester.

An expected enrollment of 2,600 regular students gives the college some 300 more students than last year.

Also, the night classes will be held on the main campus for the second long semester. This will give a total enrollment of approximately 3,800 persons, including part time students.

Registration began Tuesday when junior, senior and graduate students signed up for classes. Freshmen and sophomores registered Wednesday.

Today will be devoted to more junior, senior and graduate registration. Then at 11 a.m. today there will be a student-faculty assembly in the auditorium of the administration building.

First sessions of classes will open today at 1 p.m.

Though the main body of students arrived this week, football players and members of the band have been here for some time.

Dormitories opened Sunday to care for early arrivals--including freshmen who took an orientation and testing program.

Registration for evening classes was held in the student union building Wednesday night.

Last year total enrollment for the regular fall session totaled approximately 2,350. This was an increase of about seven per cent. A similar increase is expected this year.

Canyon Wreck Hospitalizes Four Persons

Four persons were rushed to Neblett Hospital for treatment and observation Sunday following a two-car collision in Palo Duro State Park according to investigating highway patrolmen.

Taken to Neblett for treatment were Miss Owens, 16, Patricia Marie Robinson, 4, Mrs. Clayton Mathis, 58, and Mrs. Sidney Board, 57.

All were released after treatment.

Patrolmen estimated total damages at $450.

Wreck Kills Old Bossy

One dead cow and approximately $200 damages to an automobile resulted from a cow-car collision last Wednesday night, according to highway patrolmen here.

Robert Lee Knorpp was driving on farm road 1541 and struck a cow about two miles south of state highway 217. Accident occurred at approximately 10:30 p.m.

Patrolmen said there were no injuries to Knorpp.

B.R. Jones Again Says No to Paving Proposal

For the second time in a month Monday Precinct 1 Commissioner B.R. Jones refused to carry out a paving commitment alleged to have been made by his predecessor, Bailie McCormick.

Ed Roberts and Joe Wells, property owners on McCormick Road north of Canyon, told commissioners court about the same story as that told by Bob Underwood in an August session with that group.

They pointed out that only a mile of the road running between Washington Street and the freeway remains to be black topped. About three miles of it has already been paved and caliche has been applied to the remaining mile.

A 100-foot right of way has been dedicated with sufficient land for such a right of way having been donated by property owners. Utility poles have been moved back to accommodate the right of way.

Wells said he and several other property owners put up a total of $1,500.00 for the improvement. A copy of a receipt from the county treasurer for $1,200.00 was produced at the meeting.

Jones flatly refused to continue with the paving job. Avent Lair, acting as the commissioners court's legal advisor, said Jones was not obligated to honor a commitment made by a predecessor.

Lair said a commissioner could "tie up" the funds of a successor for "the next 10 years" if such a commitment were binding.

Roberts said he and his associates had been under the impression that they were dealing with Randall County at the time the commitment was made. Commissioner C.Y. Johnson said there is nothing in the minutes to indicate that the commissioners court as a body had ever acted on the matter. "We put up the money in good faith," Roberts asserted.

Any improvement to the road presumably would be financed out of the precinct's road and bridge fund. Jones said the fund simply does not contain the money to carry out this and similar projects.

Lair suggested that the cash paid in to the county and deposited to Precinct 1 road and bridge fund be refunded on a pro-rata basis in relation to work actually done toward completion of the project. The men involved expressed preference that the matter remain status quo in hopes of getting the road paved at some future date.

In other business, the court accepted a bid of $537.00 on a Remington-Rand calculator for the county tax office. The court also agreed to pay Gene McGlasson for services as acting as county judge during the vacation of Judge Wayland Angel.

The court accepted a plat of Hidden Valley Addition, an addition in the south part of Canyon.

PAPER BOYS making a special run with the Canyon News in South Amarillo last Friday were Keith Jones, Steve Thomas, J.D. Singleton, A.B. Holt and Bill Counseller. Occasion was an extra giving details of last week's grand jury report praising A.W. Lair, district attorney, and reprimanding Tom James of the house investigating committee. Canyon businessmen defrayed expenses on the some 4,000 extra copies which were delivered in Amarillo.

Moores to Talk About Tour

People interested in the proposed shrine drama at Palo Duro Canyon State Park are invited to hear Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Moore report on their tour of eastern productions.

Meeting will be held Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Branding Iron Theater.

Sales Tax Important Says Cornette

Future of West Texas State College will be affected a great deal by the recently passed sales tax, WT President Dr. James P. Cornette told members of Canyon Lions Club Wednesday.

Dr. Cornette said Texas revenue had come principally from natural resources and special sales taxes on certain designated "vices."

The college president said that under the old tax structure the state simply was running out of financial means to carry on state services. He said the state was faced either with passing a state income tax law or a general sales tax law and the legislature chose the latter.

Dr. Cornette introduced several new members of the West Texas State faculty.

Randall Grand Jury Represents Cross Section of Residents

Members of the current Randall County grand jury represent a cross section of the county both from a geographic and occupational standpoint.

The foreman of the grand jury is Harold Smith. Smith lives at 3220 Bowie Street in Amarillo and is associated as an owner in the operation of Hub Clothiers on Polk Street in down town Amarillo.

C.F. Partain lives at 3617 Parker in Amarillo and is a safety engineer with an Amarillo construction firm.

Mrs. T.D. McOwan is a Canyon housewife. Her husband is a professor at West Texas State College here.

Jack Burgan lives at 3000 Van Buren. He works at Harry Holland's another down town Amarillo clothing store. Jack Dietz is employed by the federal government and lives on Route 1, Canyon.

J. Pat Malone lives at 4700 Buffalo Trail in Amarillo and is a vice-president of the First National Bank of Amarillo. V.J. McGee lives at 3709 Fleetwood in Amarillo and is an engineer with the Texas Highway Department.

R.R. McCartor lives at 4709 Rusk and is employed with an Amarillo credit group. E.L. Hales is a farmer and lives on Route 1, Amarillo.

Harold Erwin lives on Route 2, Amarillo, and is a farmer. Bill Woods, a farmer, lives at Bushland. H.R. Fulton Jr., Canyon, is a florist.

The current grand jury was sworn April 24 and will serve through October 2. The grand jury was selected by a jury commission which in turn was appointed by District Judge Gene Jordan.

In the days before grand juries, people were prosecuted on "information." usually brought before the king. Such "information" often was brought from malice or for political reasons.

The grand jury, as we know it, is rooted deep in English jurisprudence. It came into being by statute about the middle of the fourteenth century in England.

Due to abuses of the "information" system, the grand jury became associated in the minds of Englishmen as an incorruptible bulwark of liberty and prosecutions for felonies could be initiated only by grand jury indictments.

The American colonists carried with them this high respect for the grand jury system and placed in the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution the clause that "no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury..."

Most states, including Texas, follow the indictment method of criminal procedure. Not even a sheriff or district attorney can by-pass this grass roots body of the people in bringing a felony prosecution.

Hilltop Views

BY DR. J. A. HILL

When Dr. McMurrin, U.S.Commissioner of Education, complains, as in the interview published in U.S. News and World Report, that he cannot meet certification standards for teaching in public elementary and secondary schools he pays high compliment to all public school administrators. What chance would the holder of an academic Ph.D. degree who has made no formal study of educational problems and processes, and whose experience is at the university level, have as an instructor of little children or high school youth? To ask the question is to answer it. And a school superintendent who would nominate such an one for lower-level teaching would lack something of being smart.

The truth is, one of the unfortunate factors in Education today is the emphasis that is being put by the public and by some school administrators upon advanced academic degrees. The Ph.D. for example, is largely a research degree and is far from prima facie evidence of teaching ability. Its holder is often so stepped in research that class-room instruction is boresome to him, even in the university. He likes to continue research and write books. In most universities that preference is encouraged and results in instruction by student assistants.

It is not meant here, however, to discount the value of academic study. No sane person would deny that sound scholarship in one's teaching field, is essential. In fact, a broad and thorough general academic education along with an appreciation of our cultural heritage is excellent background for the formal study of the principles and processes of learning and methods of instruction.

I am trying to say that while scholarship is important in the making of a good teacher it falls far short of perfection in most cases. Similarly, the formal study of education by itself cannot make a good teacher. It is idle to expect the best results from either factor alone.

Dr. McMurrin's interviewer asked about the effect of extra curricular activities. It is difficult to believe that the Commissioner was entirely frank in his reply. He thought, he said, that in some schools there is too much and others there is not, and that his "impression is that this type of thing has been cut down, so that, by and large, the schools are much less inclined than formerly to become involved in frills and things of minimal worth."

In this writer's opinion this answer convicts the gentleman of lack of information about our schools or a lack of courage to face up to realities. In our part of the country at least, not a week passes for all of nine months that doesn't find school buses by the hundreds loaded with school children rolling from Big Tussle to Possum Trot for some form of extracurricular activities. That this interferes seriously with "book learnin'" there is little question. It reatly reduces the hours that could otherwise be devoted to 'readin,' 'ritin,' and 'rithmetic", if you please. It divides student interest and consumes physical and emotional energy, and does other things to childrens' educational welfare.

It is not contended here that extracurricular activities do not have compensatory values, for much can be said in their favor. This writer has himself invested a good deal of time and money in support of such activities, but the point is, they may offer an explanation of why Johnny cannot read or write or spell when he gets to college, as Dr. McMurrin and others contend.

Before closing this article, which could be continued much further, it must be said in defense of our new Commissioner that he did say in the interview here referred to several quite good things. "He wasn't as bad all the time as he was some of the time," as the preacher said about the community bad-man whom he was called upon to funeralize.

For example, he said that "we have countless schools of exceptional quality with high-level teachers and solid student achievement. However, having said this, I would insist that our schools, in a very real sense, reflect the general character of our society, and that our society can well afford some very real improvements at many points. And those places where our society is weak are reflected by certain weaknesses in the schools."

The fact is, society's weaknesses are reflected everywhere one looks--in business, in newspapers, in legislation, in TV, in literature, in politics, in social and recreational organizations, in homes, in religion and what have you. How can one expect schools to escape? The plain truth is, however, the schools as a whole are far better than the average layman has any right to expect.

We talked to Ruby Johnson up on South Washington in South Amarillo this week. Ruby and Chuck Johnson were our next door neighbors when we lived in Amarillo several years ago.

The wife and I used to talk about the Johnson's then youngest, David. He had a vivid imagination and kept us amused most of his waking hours.

We thought then that David surely would grow up to be an artist or a writer. He didn't fool us at all. His mother tells us he is quite adept at art and still has the keen imagination that lets him discern things that we mortals never comprehend.

After going on two decades in the newspaper business, most of it in the Amarillo area, I was a little surprised last week to be called a Johnny-come-lately. Surely the person who sent us the unsigned letter hasn't seen me lately with my hat off.

We are firmly convinced that one of God's greatest gifts to mankind is a dear friend. Running a close second is a powerful enemy. A powerful adversary will do more than anything else in this world to keep a man on his toes.

The long awaited Randall County grand jury has spoken. Most folks who believe in the American system of law handed down to us by centuries of Anglo-Saxon ancestors, will accept the findings of this grass roots group of good citizens.

We hope the air is cleared. We hope it paves the way for work on such projects as the symphonic drama and filling Buffalo Stadium.

We go along with fellow editors that public servants are fair game when they mishandle their offices. However, we contend that a newspaperman or a private citizen should be very careful in handing out unwarranted abuse.

Conscientious people are not attracted to office by constant needling.

Want to do something for your community? Visit with your county commissioner, the mayor, a school board member or the county judge. Learn about some of their problems first hand. Make some suggestions and find out how quick you'll get some of your good suggestions adopted as community policy.

A little interest will often accomplish more than a thousand brick bats.

Detten Family Holds Reunion With 122 Members Present

Children and grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Detten, who reside in and around Amarillo, held their annual family reunion, August 20, in Elwood Park, Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Detten and their seven children, John, Cathryn, who was Mrs. Henry Neusch, deceased; Clara, who is Mrs. Frank Grabber; Robert, Leo, Arthur and Oscar, also deceased, were pioneer residents of the Panhandle.

They came from Alton, Illinois in 1908. The family endured many hardships during the early days. The five living children are all residents near Amarillo, and the family now numbers 229 members. Attending the reunion were 122 members and two guests.

After the picnic dinner at the noon hour, games provided recreation for the younger members while the older members visited. They recalled incidents of the past, and reported on the absent members of each family.

Oldest member present was John Detten, and the youngest was Rosemary Lewis, four month old daughter of Ashby and Irene Lewis. Mrs. Betty Crandall, daughter of the Robert Dettens, and her five children of Austin, came the greatest distance to attend the affiar. The Leo Dettens have the most grandchildren, numbering 29.

Mrs. Madge Culberson Is Canyon's Only Special Education Teacher

"I believe that every child, regardless of race, color or creed, is entitled to treatment, training and education suitable to his needs. I believe it is the duty of society to accept the responsibility of the exceptional child and provide for his need", states Mrs. Madge Culberson, special education teacher for the Canyon schools.

Mrs. Culberson left the administration field to enter this work because she felt the need so keenly. After nine years, she is still satisfied with her decision.

The teacher received her training at North Texas State College, Denton, where she received a Master of Education. She has also studied at George Peabody College for Teachers, Southwest Texas State, and the University of Colorado.

Mrs. Culberson is a Methodist, a member of the official church board, and immediate past president of the Wesleyan Service Guild. She is also affiliated with the American Association of University Women, the Sue Hite Club, National Education, Texas State Teachers, and Canyon Classroom Teachers Associations, and is currently serving as president of Pi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honorary society for Woman Teachers.

The present Special Education program was begun in Canyon five years ago by Mrs. Culberson. In the beginning there were four pupils enrolled in the class. This year there are eleven boys and girls. Each pupil works at his own level and at his own speed. Several of the pupils who have been in the class from the beginning have made remarkable progress and are following the regular curriculum of the elementary school.

The class is located at the junior high school this year, and the boys and girls receive their noon meals at the school cafeteria. Studies include reading, writing and English, and many handicrafts such as basket weaving, finger painting and stuffed animals, and the pupils especially enjoy making gifts to present to members of their families on special occasions.

MRS. MADGE CULBERSON

When the Minimum Foundation educational guarantees were established for Texas school children, provisions were made for special education to meet the needs of educable exceptional children. The establishment of a special education program is based upon the recognition that there are wide ranges of differences in children and youth; differences in their physical, mental and social needs. It is the responsibility of the public schools of Texas to provide an educational program for all children who are educable.

All special teaching is to be done in attractive, well equipped, standard classrooms on the ground floor of a public school building. In general, it should be convincingly obvious that the room is well equipped to provide first-class elementary instruction on an individual basis.

Many of the states of the Union are providing special services for children before Texas got around to doing anything about it. It was not until 1945, that the first law was passed in Texas establishing a program of special education. Many groups were left out of this bill, and in 1951, another bill was passed to admit every child who needed individual instruction.

Mrs. Culberson explained that her salary as epecial education teacher is paid by the state of Texas, and that the only requirement of the local school system is to provide a classroom which is equal in every way to other classrooms in the school.

WSCS Meets

General meeting of the Womans Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church was held on Tuesday morning in the church parlor. A period of silent meditation opened the program, and "A Spiritual Guide", was read.

Using a chart of symbols, Mrs. Gene Murray gave interpretations from various scriptures. "Holy Spirit" was the theme of the program conducted by Mrs. H.E. Campfield. She presented a discussion from the program book, "The Household of God". The topic for a report made by Mrs. Lula Moremen was, "The Importance of the Holy Spirit in Our Christian Lives."

Mrs. Glenn Gardner presided over the business session. Using a sample display rack, Mrs. L.H. Brotherton made a report from the library committee.

Following the program, a salad luncheon was held in Fellowship Hall.

Carla Claims Possessions of A.W. Harding Relatives

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Harding lost everything they own except some clothing and their car in the hurricane on the Gulf coast this week.

Carla, a mean storm with a pretty girl's name, swept over the coast and brought the greatest exodus from weather causes in history.

Mrs. Freeman Byrd told relatives here that her home in Freeport was destroyed. She and relatives fled to Rockdale. She and two other women along with four babies are sleeping in a 4 X 6 camping trailer.

The men in the group are sleeping on the floor in the Rockdale American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Byrd says the town of Rockdale is overrun with refugees. Many people are becoming ill, especially the children.

Mrs. Byrd has been advised that a great deal of Freeport was under water following a break in the Brazos River dam above the town.

She said she had been told that only the roof of her home is visible above the flood waters. Her home is near the river front.

Mrs. Byrd is society editor for The Freeport Enterprise. A son also is employed by that newspaper.

Mrs. Byrd told relatives here that winds were the highest she had ever witnessed in her 25 years of living at Freeport.

"We haven't much to go back to but we must go back," she is quoted as having said.

Disaster is nothing new to Mrs. Byrd. Her home burned two years ago next Thanksgiving and she and her family escaped with only their night clothes.

First place winners' garments will be entered in a district contest to be held in Denver, Colorado.

Judging the contests were Clara Long, Guyline Stover and Voncille Ford.

Nancy Davis acted as mistress of ceremonies, and C.O. Smith of Amarillo represented the area Singer offices.

Cindy Gruner was first place winner of the younger girls, with Nancy Hicks leading the older contestants.

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, September 9, in the Happy Church of Christ by Miss Delores Mullins and Bob Weatherly. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mullins of Happy are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Weatherly of Wheeler.

Walter Swain, minister of the Happy Church of Christ, officiated at the ceremony. Decorating the altar of the church were three white urns, holding white pom-pom dahlias and yellow gladioli, interspersed with fern, to frame the background for the wedding.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Rita Gunkey of Tulia. She wore a yellow street length dress with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Best man was Roy Ford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of white net over taffeta, designed with a bouffant skirt, fitted bodice, short sleeves and square neckline. She carried a corsage bouquet of yellow rosebuds, showered with gold streamers, atop a white Bible.

Immediate relatives and close friends attended the wedding.

The couple will be at home in Happy following a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Colorado.

Student Drivers Face New Traffic Regulations at WT

Student automobile owners at West Texas State College face a revised set of traffic and parking regulations, according to Troy Jordan, chief security officer there.

Jordan said that car registration is now in progress and a permit costs $5.

"This permit is good for both semesters," Jordan pointed out.

In inspecting the cars for registration Jordan is enforcing a college ruling that no vehicle will be issued a permit which emits any unusual noise or smoke or uses any muffler cut out, bypass, or similar device.

"To the students, this means standard mufflers," Jordan said. "We've found many which have had to be changed," he added.

This year another officer has been added to the campus security staff. John Stritzel assumed duties as Jordan's assistant at the opening of the semester.

Retiring from the army last January, Stritzel was a former ROTC instructor at West Texas.

Both men will work traffic and parking this year.

Jordan said the City of Amarillo has cooperated in marking off campus parking spaces and making zoning signs.

"We've completely reworked the campus and have tried to clarify every situation," he said.

STACKED
AGAINST YOU

340 tons of dishes are stacked against you in a lifetime — and that's quite a pile.

It takes 728 hours a year to do them by hand — and that's a monthful of 24-hour days.

You haven't got a chance of cleaning them by hand as well as an electric dishwasher will do the job — and you'll have nothing but red hands to show for your effort.

Why all this drudgery when a penny and a half spent doing the job electrically each day removes all the misery.

Dishwashers come in portable models that take no extra plumbing or wiring.

So — don't be a dishwasher — buy one.

PTA Outlines Programs For This School Year

BY MARGARET HARPER

After several generations, the Canyon PTA has decided not to depend any longer on little mimeographed meeting announcements in the children's hands (or pinned to their shirts or dresses) for distribution of information about the meetings of Parents and Teachers.

At a planning meeting of the board of directors, the incoming president, Mrs. C.C. Callarman conducted a survey and found that no more than one slip out of four reached home. It was decided that two devices would replace the slips. The first would be more complete information prepared for the newspaper and presented the week before the meeting, with a follow up story on the day of the meeting.

The second device is the development of a telephoning chain for making announcements. If the slips hadn't been such a good size for making paper wads, this change might not have been necessary. There are two other basic announcements. There will be a nursery at each meeting. And the time has been advanced to 7:30 p.m.

The board of directors of the association will consist of:

Mesdames C.C. Callarman, president; Ples Harper, vice-president; LeRoy Moreland, secretary; Joe Frank, treasurer; Dan Sanders, Parliamentarian; Phil Swatzell, membership; R.P. Jarrett, Jr., Finance and budget; W.E. Miller, publicity; Robert Bellah, publications; Clara Long, Civil defense and family living; Paul Lindsey, room representative; Joe Gibson, legislative chairman; George de Schweinitz, safety; Lewis Tucek, hospitality; John Upshaw, the exceptional child; Hazel Walsh, life membership; Tommy Lair, historian; Billy Brown, auditor; Glenn Dowlen, music chairman; R.E. Barnard, cultural arts; and Alfred Daniel, telephone chairman.

The theme of the PTA program in Canyon for the year 1961-62 will be "The Educational Resources of our Area." The first four meetings in this series will be explorations of our own schools. The first, to be held next Thursday, September 21, will be a "back to school" night for the parents of the junior high school and the high school. Grade school parents will have the same experience but at different times during the next few weeks. Parents of high school students will meet in the auditorium of the high school at 7:30 for their instructions. Parents of 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders will meet in the auditorium of the junior high school for theirs. Each parent will have his child's schedule of classes and will spend ten minutes with each of his teachers, examing the materials used in that section, getting acquainted with that teacher, and discovering what the child and the teacher hope to accomplish in that hour.

At nine o'clock the parents and teachers will move to the high school cafeteria for a party for the new teachers, and the board has hope that the parents of the grade school children will come about 8:30. Mrs. Lewis Tucek is gathering her committee together to make the plans for this affair, and they are plotting to see that many parents will have opportunities to talk with the new people who are there.

The second meeting, Thursday October 19, will continue the exploration of the Canyon schools. Bob Wear of the Canyon school board will be in charge and the report of the citizen's committee investigating the needs of our system will be the subject. Since the conclusions of this committee will be the base of the development of the Canyon schools for some years in the future, this will be a very important meeting and will be open to the public.

At the third meeting, November 16, the counselor of our high school will talk about "testing." He will discuss the kinds of tests used in the Canyon schools, the reasons for their use and the comparisons of the results with similar programs in other cities and other states. He will also tell why it is not customary to tell the results of some of these tests to the parents and will welcome discussion from the floor about the implications of the testing program.

The fourth program will be in the hands of the music department and will be a presentation of Christmas music the children have prepared. This will be December 14. This date has been moved to the second Thursday because of the Christmas holidays.

The spring programs will be explorations of educational assets in the community. The meeting January 18 will be a discussion of the purposes and work of the hearing clinic which is located in Canyon in the Fine Arts Building on the West Texas State Campus. David Lipscomb, who is in charge of the clinic, will present the program. Since this clinic is available and helpful for everyone who needs a hearing aid, and since it is investigating hearing helps and problems constantly, its work is of great importance. Parents bring their children from many neighboring states for consultation here, and we need to know exactly what its resources are.

The February meeting will be a discovery of the purposes and resources of the child psychiatric clinic in Amarillo. The services of this wonderful center for helping children with serious problems is available to Canyon people on a private basis and could be helpful on a broader base. Dr. Quintanilla who is in charge, will be here for this meeting accompanied by several members of his staff so there will be opportunity for small group discussions and many questions and answers.

The March meeting will be on the development of teaching machines, with special emphasis on the ones devoted to mathematics. The details of this program will be announced later. It will be held Thursday, March 15.

Dr. Ruth Lowes will be in charge of the April 20 meeting. She will describe the procedures developed in the reading clinics held on the West Texas State College campus each summer. In her description she will include the use and purpose of some of the reading machine devices which are available, and used in the clinic program.

Although there are other educational resources which will have to be left for another series of programs, the May meeting on the 17th will be a special preparation for the summer months. It will be a discussion of the employment opportunities available for students during the summer months, and of course will also include the installation of new officers and preparation for the new PTA year.

We hope that this program will be of interest to the Canyon community and that you will mention your reactions to Mrs. C. Petruccione, Mr. Lawrence Brotherton and Mrs. Ples Harper, the members of the committee.

The mothers of a single grade level will be in charge of the hospitality for each meeting.

September, 4th grade mothers; October, 5th grade mothers; November 6th grade mothers; December, High School mothers; January, 7th grade mothers; February, 8th grade mothers; March 1st grade mothers; April 2nd grade mothers; May, 3rd grade mothers.

Rev. James Flynn To Serve As New Jersey Pastor

The Rev. James D. Flynn, of Neshanic, New Jersey, a 23-year-old minister from Austin, has his work cut out for him.

He will serve as pastor of the Neshanic, Centerville and Mt. Zion Methodist churches in that state which have been without a pastor since last June when the minister was transferred.

The Rev. Mr. Flynn, a native of Chicago, has spent most of his life in the Texas Panhandle. Since 1947, he lived in Canyon and is a graduate of the University of Texas in Austin. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Flynn of this city.

He was married to the former Elizabeth Caldwell of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, in January of this year. She also was graduated from the University of Texas.

He served as pastor of Smithville Methodist Church in Texas for one year and his outstanding work with youth won him recognition from the Texas Methodist Conference.

The young pastor's exceptional work in Texas led to his recommendation to the district superintendent of the Newark District and subsequently to his present post.

The WSCS of the Neshanic church planned a reception for the couple in the church on September 9. Its main purpose was to allow the minister to become acquainted with his congregation.

A similar reception is planned at Centerville.

Just so he won't have too much extra time, the Rev. Flynn will attend Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, to complete his studies.

Season Prospects

After looking at his squad in spring training, Coach Joe Kerbel agreed that the Buffaloes will have more experience, more depth and more backfield speed in 1961. The fact that the Buffs won only three games in '60 indicates improvement is needed in nearly all departments.

West Texas lost only eight lettermen out of 25 jacket-winners by graduation and Coach Kerbel added a dozen junior college players at mid-term. The new boys are expected to be especially conspicuous in the Buff backfield, and a couple may be in the starting lineup when the season opens Sept. 23 against Brigham Young.

Added backfield speed has been assured with the addition of Jerry Richardson, 170-pound sophomore who in a local product, and transfers Pistol Pete Pedro, 160-pound sophomore from Trinidad, Colo, JC, and Dan Anderson, 185-pound junior from Bakersfield, Calif., JC.

The quarterback spot appears to be in good hands with Jim Dawson, junior passing ace who ranked among the nation's leaders, returning. He missed spring drills because of a shoulder operation, however, and will have a tough battle beating out Bob Ezell, Bakersfield JC ace; John David Bryant, senior candidate; and David "Hoot" Gibson, promising sophomore.

At fullback, three JC All-Americans and junior returnee Bill Lorance are engaged in a spirited bout. Ollie Ross, 205-pounder from Palo Verde JC, had the inside track after spring drills. He has rugged competition from Stu McAlvage, Eastern Arizona JC whiz; Gary Reeves, Kilgore JC hot-shot; and Bill Lorance, returning junior.

In addition to speedsters Richardson, Pedro and Anderson, the Buffs will be calling on Jerry Logan, an outstanding pass receiver, and Jimmy Janes, one of the few seniors in the backfield.

Probably the club's biggest weakness is the lack of experience and depth at the interior line positions. Veteran Frank Thrasher returns at center but the Buffs had to experiment during spring drills to find adequate reserve strength. Tackle Dennis Smith and guard Bill Gilliland were switched and currently rank in that order behind Thrasher.

At guard, Bill Bradley, 210-pounder from Tucson, Ariz., and Stu Johnson, 190-pound Perryton junior, have the inside track but depth must come from sophomores Jack Mayfield and Dan Smith. At tackle, Jerry Behrens and Ray Kauffman are expected to do an A-1 job but they are the only experienced seniors at that post. Sophomore John Varnell, a 6-4, 225-pound giant may be a starter and top replacements are JC gridders Ken Garver, Dick Lowery, Bob Petrich, and Jim Cunningham.

Last year's starting ends—Dean Faulkenberry and Joe Granato—are back but they are getting a tough tussle from several new faces.

Wesleyan Service Guild will begin its first study of the year on Wednesday, September 20, at 7:30 p.m., in the parlor of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. Hazel Sunderman will teach the book, "Under Orders", by Roswell P. Barnes.

Mrs. Sunderman is the former Hazel Kirbie, daughter of Mrs. Marvel Kirbie of Canyon. She was previously head of the Special Education Department at the University of Corpus Christi, and has taught English in several high schools in Texas and Arizona. Mrs. Sunderman received her B.A. degree from West Texas State College, and her Master's in special education at the Teachers College, San Marcus.

Carla Claims Possessions of A.W. Harding Relatives

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Harding lost everything they own except some clothing and their car in the hurricane on the Gulf coast this week.

Carla, a mean storm with a pretty girl's name, swept over the coast and brought the greatest exodus from weather causes in history.

Mrs. Freeman Byrd told relatives here that her home in Freeport was destroyed. She and relatives fled to Rockdale. She and two other women along with four babies are sleeping in a 4 X 6 camping trailer.

The men in the group are sleeping on the floor in the Rockdale American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Byrd says the town of Rockdale is overrun with refugees. Many people are becoming ill, especially the children.

Mrs. Byrd has been advised that a great deal of Freeport was under water following a break in the Brazos River dam above the town.

She said she had been told that only the roof of her home is visible above the flood waters. Her home is near the river front.

Mrs. Byrd is society editor for The Freeport Enterprise. A son also is employed by that newspaper.

Mrs. Byrd told relatives here that winds were the highest she had ever witnessed in her 25 years of living at Freeport.

"We haven't much to go back to but we must go back," she is quoted as having said.

Disaster is nothing new to Mrs. Byrd. Her home burned two years ago next Thanksgiving and she and her family escaped with only their night clothes.

Judging the contests were Clara Long, Guyline Stover and Voncille Ford.

Nancy Davis acted as mistress of ceremonies, and C.O. Smith of Amarillo represented the area Singer offices.

Cindy Gruner was first place winner of the younger girls, with Nancy Hicks leading the older contestants.

Vows Exchanged In Church Rites

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, September 9, in the Happy Church of Christ by Miss Delores Mullins and Bob Weatherly. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mullins of Happy are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Weatherly of Wheeler.

Walter Swain, minister of the Happy Church of Christ, officiated at the ceremony. Decorating the altar of the church were three white urns, holding white pom-pom dahlias and yellow gladioli, interspersed with fern, to frame the background for the wedding.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Rita Gunkey of Tulia. She wore a yellow street length dress with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Best man was Roy Ford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of white net over taffeta, designed with a bouffant skirt, fitted bodice, short sleeves and square neckline. She carried a corsage bouquet of yellow rosebuds, showered with gold streamers, atop a white Bible.

Immediate relatives and close friends attended the wedding.

The couple will be at home in Happy following a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Colorado.

John Williams' Father Dies Monday at Pampa

James Ewing Williams of Pampa, father of John A. Williams of this city, died Monday night at 10:30 at Worley Hospital. He had been engaged in the ranching business for more than half a century.

Funeral services for the 95-year-old Gray County pioneer will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Harvester and Mary Ellen Street Church of Christ in Pampa. Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home was in charge.

Mr. Williams had been in good health until several weeks ago when he fell and suffered a broken hip. The family residence was at 721 Francis in Pampa.

Born Oct. 19, 1865, in Benton County, Missouri, Mr. Williams came to Denton County, Texas, with his parents in 1876. At the age of 18, in March, he moved to the Panhandle to work as a cowboy for the Franklin Land and Cattle Company, a spread that occupied 1,100 sections of land west of Pampa.

Mr. Williams continued his ranch work until in the late 1890's when he filed on four sections of land located near the present site of Lefors.

During his ranching career he served as a school trustee from 1895 until 1921, and for seven years before Gray County was organized, Mr. Williams served as a deputy sheriff.

He was a member of the Harvester and Mary Ellen Street Church of Christ.

Survivors are his wife, Lucy Williams of the home, a daughter, Mrs. Jack R. C. Vincent of Amarillo; two sons, John A. Williams of Canyon, and Ewing Williams of Tucson, Arizona, five grandchildren including Dale Williams of this city, and nine great grandchildren.

BAKE SALE

Student Drivers Face New Traffic Regulations at WT

Student automobile owners at West Texas State College face a revised set of traffic and parking regulations, according to Troy Jordan, chief security officer there.

Jordan said that car registration is now in progress and a permit costs $5.

"This permit is good for both semesters," Jordan pointed out.

In inspecting the cars for registration Jordan is enforcing a college ruling that no vehicle will be issued a permit which emits any unusual noise or smoke or uses any muffler cut out, bypass, or similar device.

"To the students, this means standard mufflers," Jordan said. "We've found many which have had to be changed," he added.

This year another officer has been added to the campus security staff. John Stritzel assumed duties as Jordan's assistant at the opening of the semester.

Retiring from the army last January, Stritzel was a former ROTC instructor at West Texas.

Both men will work traffic and parking this year.

Jordan said the City of Amarillo has cooperated in marking off campus parking spaces and making zoning signs.

"We've completely reworked the campus and have tried to clarify every situation," he said.

STACKED
AGAINST YOU

340 tons of dishes are stacked against you in a lifetime — and that's quite a pile.

It takes 728 hours a year to do them by hand — and that's a monthful of 24-hour days.

You haven't got a chance of cleaning them by hand as well as an electric dishwasher will do the job — and you'll have nothing but red hands to show for your effort.

Why all this drudgery when a penny and a half spent doing the job electrically each day removes all the misery.

Dishwashers come in portable models that take no extra plumbing or wiring.

PTA Outlines Programs For This School Year

BY MARGARET HARPER

After several generations, the Canyon PTA has decided not to depend any longer on little mimeographed meeting announcements in the children's hands (or pinned to their shirts or dresses) for distribution of information about the meetings of Parents and Teachers.

At a planning meeting of the board of directors, the incoming president, Mrs. C.C. Callarman conducted a survey and found that no more than one slip out of four reached home. It was decided that two devices would replace the slips. The first would be more complete information prepared for the newspaper and presented the week before the meeting, with a follow up story on the day of the meeting.

The second device is the development of a telephoning chain for making announcements. If the slips hadn't been such a good size for making paper wads, this change might not have been necessary. There are two other basic announcements. There will be a nursery at each meeting. And the time has been advanced to 7:30 p.m.

The board of directors of the association will consist of:

Mesdames C.C. Callarman, president; Ples Harper, vice-president; LeRoy Moreland, secretary; Joe Frank, treasurer; Dan Sanders, Parliamentarian; Phil Swatzell, membership; R.P. Jarrett, Jr., Finance and budget; W.E. Miller, publicity; Robert Bellah, publications; Clara Long, Civil defense and family living; Paul Lindsey, room representative; Joe Gibson, legislative chairman; George de Schweinitz, safety; Lewis Tucek, hospitality; John Upshaw, the exceptional child; Hazel Walsh, life membership; Tommy Lair, historian; Billy Brown, auditor; Glenn Dowlen, music chairman; R.E. Barnard, cultural arts; and Alfred Daniel, telephone chairman.

The theme of the PTA program in Canyon for the year 1961-62 will be "The Educational Resources of our Area." The first four meetings in this series will be explorations of our own schools. The first, to be held next Thursday, September 21, will be a "back to school" night for the parents of the junior high school and the high school. Grade school parents will have the same experience but at different times during the next few weeks. Parents of high school students will meet in the auditorium of the high school at 7:30 for their instructions. Parents of 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders will meet in the auditorium of the junior high school for theirs. Each parent will have his child's schedule of classes and will spend ten minutes with each of his teachers, examing the materials used in that section, getting acquainted with that teacher, and discovering what the child and the teacher hope to accomplish in that hour.

At nine o'clock the parents and teachers will move to the high school cafeteria for a party for the new teachers, and the board has hope that the parents of the grade school children will come about 8:30. Mrs. Lewis Tucek is gathering her committee together to make the plans for this affair, and they are plotting to see that many parents will have opportunities to talk with the new people who are there.

The second meeting, Thursday October 19, will continue the exploration of the Canyon schools. Bob Wear of the Canyon school board will be in charge and the report of the citizen's committee investigating the needs of our system will be the subject. Since the conclusions of this committee will be the base of the development of the Canyon schools for some years in the future, this will be a very important meeting and will be open to the public.

At the third meeting, November 16, the counselor of our high school will talk about "testing." He will discuss the kinds of tests used in the Canyon schools, the reasons for their use and the comparisons of the results with similar programs in other cities and other states. He will also tell why it is not customary to tell the results of some of these tests to the parents and will welcome discussion from the floor about the implications of the testing program.

The fourth program will be in the hands of the music department and will be a presentation of Christmas music the children have prepared. This will be December 14. This date has been moved to the second Thursday because of the Christmas holidays.

The spring programs will be explorations of educational assets in the community. The meeting January 18 will be a discussion of the purposes and work of the hearing clinic which is located in Canyon in the Fine Arts Building on the West Texas State Campus. David Lipscomb, who is in charge of the clinic, will present the program. Since this clinic is available and helpful for everyone who needs a hearing aid, and since it is investigating hearing helps and problems constantly, its work is of great importance. Parents bring their children from many neighboring states for consultation here, and we need to know exactly what its resources are.

The February meeting will be a discovery of the purposes and resources of the child psychiatric clinic in Amarillo. The services of this wonderful center for helping children with serious problems is available to Canyon people on a private basis and could be helpful on a broader base. Dr. Quintanilla who is in charge, will be here for this meeting accompanied by several members of his staff so there will be opportunity for small group discussions and many questions and answers.

The March meeting will be on the development of teaching machines, with special emphasis on the ones devoted to mathematics. The details of this program will be announced later. It will be held Thursday, March 15.

Dr. Ruth Lo[illegible]es will be in charge of the April 20 meeting. She will describe the procedures developed in the reading clinics held on the West Texas State College campus each summer. In her description she will include the use and purpose of some of the reading machine devices which are available, and used in the clinic program.

Although there are other educational resources which will have to be left for another series of programs, the May meeting on the 17th will be a special preparation for the summer months. It will be a discussion of the employment opportunities available for students during the summer months, and of course will also include the installation of new officers and preparation for the new PTA year.

We hope that this program will be of interest to the Canyon community and that you will mention your reactions to Mrs. C. Petruccione, Mr. Lawrence Brotherton and Mrs. Ples Harper, the members of the committee.

The mothers of a single grade level will be in charge of the hospitality for each meeting.

September, 4th grade mothers; October, 5th grade mothers; November 6th grade mothers; December, High School mothers; January, 7th grade mothers; February, 8th grade mothers; March 1st grade mothers; April 2nd grade mothers; May, 3rd grade mothers.

Rev. James Flynn To Serve As New Jersey Pastor

The Rev. James D. Flynn, of Neshanic, New Jersey, a 23-year-old minister from Austin, has his work cut out for him.

He will serve as pastor of the Neshanic, Centerville and Mt. Zion Methodist churches in that state which have been without a pastor since last June when the minister was transferred.

The Rev. Mr. Flynn, a native of Chicago, has spent most of his life in the Texas Panhandle. Since 1947, he lived in Canyon and is a graduate of the University of Texas in Austin. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Flynn of this city.

He was married to the former Elizabeth Caldwell of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, in January of this year. She also was graduated from the University of Texas.

He served as pastor of Smithville Methodist Church in Texas for one year and his outstanding work with youth won him recognition from the Texas Methodist Conference.

The young pastor's exceptional work in Texas led to his recommendation to the district superintendent of the Newark District and subsequently to his present post.

The WSCS of the Neshanic church planned a reception for the couple in the church on September 9. Its main purpose was to allow the minister to become acquainted with his congregation.

A similar reception is planned at Centerville.

Just so he won't have too much extra time, the Rev. Flynn will attend Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, to complete his studies.

Season Prospects

After looking at his squad in spring training, Coach Joe Kerbel agreed that the Buffaloes will have more experience, more depth and more backfield speed in 1961. The fact that the Buffs won only three games in '60 indicates improvement is needed in nearly all departments.

West Texas lost only eight lettermen out of 25 jacket-winners by graduation and Coach Kerbel added a dozen junior college players at mid-term. The new boys are expected to be especially conspicuous in the Buff backfield, and a couple may be in the starting lineup when the season opens Sept. 23 against Brigham Young.

Added backfield speed has been assured with the addition of Jerry Richardson, 170-pound sophomore who in a local product, and transfers Pistol Pete Pedro, 160-pound sophomore from Trinidad, Colo, JC, and Dan Anderson, 185-pound junior from Bakersfield, Calif., JC.

The quarterback spot appears to be in good hands with Jim Dawson, junior passing ace who ranked among the nation's leaders, returning. He missed spring drills because of a shoulder operation, however, and will have a tough battle beating out Bob Ezell, Bakersfield JC ace; John David Bryant, senior candidate; and David "Hoot" Gibson, promising sophomore.

At fullback, three JC All-Americans and junior returnee Bill Lorance are engaged in a spirited bout. Ollie Ross, 205-pounder from Palo Verde JC, had the inside track after spring drills. He has rugged competition from Stu McAlvage, Eastern Arizona JC whiz; Gary Reeves, Kilgore JC hot-shot; and Bill Lorance, returning junior.

In addition to speedsters Richardson, Pedro and Anderson, the Buffs will be calling on Jerry Logan, an outstanding pass receiver, and Jimmy Janes, one of the few seniors in the backfield.

Probably the club's biggest weakness is the lack of experience and depth at the interior line positions. Veteran Frank Thrasher returns at center but the Buffs had to experiment during spring drills to find adequate reserve strength. Tackle Dennis Smith and guard Bill Gilliland were switched and currently rank in that order behind Thrasher.

At guard, Bill Bradley, 210-pounder from Tucson, Ariz., and Stu Johnson, 190-pound Perryton junior, have the inside track but depth must come from sophomores Jack Mayfield and Dan Smith. At tackle, Jerry Behrens and Ray Kauffman are expected to do an A-1 job but they are the only experienced seniors at that post. Sophomore John Varnell, a 6-4, 225-pound giant may be a starter and top replacements are JC gridders Ken Garver, Dick Lowery, Bob Petrich, and Jim Cunningham.

Last year's starting ends—Dean Faulkenberry and Joe Granato—are back but they are getting a tough tussle from several new faces.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by JOHN BRAZZIL

Are you a former 4-H Club member 18 years of age or older?. If so, you may apply for a 4-H Peace Corps assignment for 2 years in Latin America. Contact the County Extension office at the Randall County Courthouse right away.

The exact location of the project assignment cannot be announced yet because it is still being negotiated. Participants will work as a two-person team, and help develop 4-H type rural youth programs. The assignment would be for two years, starting about December 1. Application forms are available in the County agent's office and they must be completed before September 29.

***

Zone 3 residents of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District have an election date to keep on October 3. J. W. Spencer, present supervisor and chairman of the district board has arranged an interesting program at the Jowell community house that evening. Voters in zone 3, the southwest portion of Randall County will elect a farmer or rancher who will serve as their supervisor and representative on the Soil Conservation for the next five years. A qualified voter is a zone 3 landowner who is over 21 years of age or older.

***

The feed grain crops of Randall County are late this year. Heavy rains at planting time together with an unusually cool summer have caused some concern about early frost dangers. By mid-September the train sorghum crop is usually well along toward maturity. The fields now showing a mature color are few and far between. While driving over the county the past week most of the grain appear to be just past the bloom stage.

***

The annual crops display from Randall County at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo may be a little shy this year because of the delay in crop maturity most of our major crops are not ready to harvest A booth will be filled with Randall County produce as usual but probably they will not be entered in the competitive classes for individual ribbons. While you are a visitor at the fair stop by the agricultural exhibits building and see the varied and excellent produce from the High Plains Counties.

Ida Schuette, Oscar Schuette, Vic and Helen Mueller visited with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stevens, Cynthia and Mark in Wayne, Nebraska last week. Mrs. Stevens will be remembered as Bett Schuette of the Palo Duro Community, east of Canyon.

L. L. Hix Recalls Oil Boom Days Near Tampico, Mexico

By Claude Money

"We were given plane tickets and told to get out of the country if things got too rough; so, in 1938, I left Mexico after a stay of fifteen years", relates L.L. Hix.

Leaving Canyon in 1924, Hix headed south and ended up at Tampico, Mexico, where jobless and getting a little hungry, he made contact with Mace Younger, formerly of Canyon. Younger was associated with Sinclair Oil Company, and secured a job for L.L. with the same company as a guager. This job was the lowest pay that Sinclair had, but the $200 a month it offered was huge compared to the average monthly wage of $75 in the States.

No revolution was going at the time, Pancho Villa having died in 1923, but conditions were unsettled and bandits were unchecked in the rural districts. Sidearms were usually not worn openly, but L.L. carried his in his saddle bags when traveling anywhere. When a troublemaker suggested his early departure from this earth, Hix carried his pistol in his waistband until the troublesome fellow decided to visit other parts of Mexico.

Advancing to the position of production superintendent, L.L. traveled miles through the jungles supervising the flowing of wells. Roads were primitive, and by today's standards, cars weren't much better. On one occasion he found the road blocked by a huge snake about 30 feet long. Not wanting to drive over it, he parked until it had crawled on its way.

MR. AND MRS. H.L. HIX

In 1935, Mexico adopted a radical program and initiated the seizure of large estates and holdings for redistribution among the peasants and poor farmers. The agrarians were making things hectic for the oil explorers by jumping land and fencing and closing roads.

A rough German-Mexican who was employed as captain of guards for Sinclair came up with a novel solution. He offered to kill the agrarians for one hundred pesos a head, and bring in their ears as evidence of their demise. The offer was rejected, but the capabilities of the captain were evidenced in that the last time Hix saw him, about ten years ago, he had just been released from jail after killing someone.

One time L.L. received the eleven thousand peso payroll to distribute but was advised not to pay the men until instructed. Since this was a furtune to the Mexicans, and no bank was handy, L.L. provided his own by burying the money under a tree until pay day.

In 1938, properties of seventeen oil companies, including Sinclair, were expropriated by the Mexican government, leaving His and his fellow workers nothing with which to continue. Although, he was offered $750 per month by an oil company to go to Venezuela, Hix decided to return to Canyon and went to work as a deputy sheriff at $100 per month. During his Mexico adventure, he acquired oil interests which are managed by a partner who resides in Mexico.

Lewis Lionel Hix was born to I.N. and Carrie Payne Hix, March 1, 1895, in a half dugout located four miles west of Canyon. His sister, Mrs. L.D. Winn, still resides on the old family place. The Hix family came from Wilbarger County in 1890. Originally, the name was spelled Hicks, but as there were three unrelated families around Canyon by that name, and mail was constantly being mixed up, the spelling was changed to Hix.

L.L. began school in a little school house located on the southwest corner of their home section. Later, he attended public school in town. Further education was acquired at West Texas Normal College, 1915-1917, Tyler Business College, and the University of Texas. While playing football for W.T. in 1914, Hix dropkicked a goal from the 35 yard line, establishing a school record.

During the latter part of World War I, he served in the United States Navy. Having completed a navy school in New Orleans, he was enroute to another school at Harvard when the war was over. The group was discharged at New York, and each was given $60 and a train ticket home. L.L. stopped at Chicago and Kansas City to see the sights and spend his money before returning to Canyon.

When W.A. Warren opened The Men's Store in 1921, His was an employee for two years. Later, Warren and Hix owned the East End Grocery which was located where the college cafeteria is now located.

After his Mexico venture, L.L. served as deputy sheriff under the late M.E. Cantrell, from 1939-46. Since that time, he has resided on his farm four miles southeast of Canyon.

L.L. and Carlee Wirt were married October 5, 1946, uniting two pioneer Randall County families.

Whitefaces March By Eagles 19-0 in Grid Bout

Hereford's Mack Cansler spelled death for the Canyon Eagles Friday night in a gridiron battle played on Hereford soil.

The 19-0 victory for the Whitefaces was mainly the work of the 160-pound senior left half back. Cansler ran over two of the touchdowns for the Whiteface team and did much of the mid-field work.

The td's came on 95 and 61 yard -runs. The Whiteface team scored one other touchdown whem Jim Haney pulled in a toss in the end zone. Kick for the extra point brought the game's final score, 19-0.

All of the first half was a tight game, neither team scoring.

During the first minutes of the game, Harry Lisle scampered away with an Eagle punt to paydirt but the score was conceled by a penalty for clipping.

Then again, the Eagles neared the Hereford goal line in the final seconds of the half but the clock stopped any scoring action. The Eagles fell on a fumble in the end zone but the gun had already sounded.

The Eagles played a brilliant defense throughout the game, and the line punched through on many Whiteface ground pays. The Hereford team came within 10 yards of the Canyon goal in the first half with 4 downs to go but the Eagle defense turned them back.

Though the Eagles ran a series of driving ground plays the game was marred by six fumbles.

Cansler's first score came during the third quarter when he made the 75-yard scamper. Try for extra points failed and the game stood at 6-0.

Canyon then began a series of punching ground plays but lost the ball when a backfield lateral was shot out on bare turf. The Whitefaces took advantage of the slip and easily recovered the ball.

With this break the Hereford team marched to the Canyon 8-yard line and had 4 downs to try for a score. They drove to the one but Canyon gained the ball due to outstanding play by the line.

Again the Eagles began marching with hard-hitting ground plays chalking up five consecutive first downs. But another fumble abruptly halted the drive and Cansler made another td on Hereford's first play following the fumble.

The Eagles took the next kick off in the end zone and moved out to the 20. On their first play the Whitefaces intercepted a toss. Jim Haney then received a pass for the Whitefaces and tallied up the game's final score.

Kick for the extra point hit the cross bar but bounced over for another point.

The Eagles made a final attempt to score with a series of unsuccessful pass plays in final seconds of the game.

Next game will be at Perryton Friday night.

HEREFORD'S MACK CANSLER is shown above (white jersey) with a swarm of Canyon Eagles on him. Cansler made two of three touchdowns for the Whiteface team.

HARRY LISLE, No. 10, is shown on a touchdown scamper in the opening minutes of the game with Hereford. Touchdown was called back on a penalty.

Dove Hunters Having Hard Luck States Game Warden

Dove hunters are having hard luck throughout the Panhandle and in some areas below the cap rock, according to Stanley McDonough, game warden.

McDonough said there are very few birds in the area ad the season is off to a slow start.

He said that a norther might bring more birds into the area, but at the present time he predicts "poor hunting."

Season closes October 30 at sunset. Shooting begins each day at noon.

This year Randall nimrods will have a chance at pheasants, McDonough pointed out.

Season will be December 9 and 10 and December 16 and 17. "A hunter is allowed two cock pheasants per day and possession limit is four," he said.

Also, deer and turkey season opens in the county November 16 and lasts through November 29. One buck deer with antlers protruding through the skin is allowed. Two turkey gobblers will be the bag limit.

Quail season opens December 1 and lasts through January 16. Bag limit has been set at 12 and possession limit is 36.

Duck and coot season opens November 18 and last through December 17. Shooting will start at 12 noon opening day. Otherwise it will begin at sunrise each day.

Bag limit is three per day and possession limit is six.

There is no open season on black bellied tree ducks, red heads or canvas backs.

Goose season opens November 3 and closes January 1. Two Canadian geese are allowed or one Canadian goose and one white front.

McDonough said a federal stamp is required to hunt ducks and geese. A state hunting license is required for deer and turkey hunting in any case. Otherwise, as long as a person hunts in the county of his residence no state license is required.

Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Brown and children, Randy and Beverly, spent the weekend visiting with relatives in Post.

Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Parker, Jr., were in Dallas over the weekend attending the Gift Show and purchasing merchandise for Western Auto.

Mrs. George Dudley Moore, Sr., and Weston have returned from Shreveport, Louisiana, where they visited with relatives.

Wreck Victim Dies Saturday

Lon Phillips, victim of a car-truck wreck in Happy Wednesday, died Saturday at about 9:20 a.m. in Neblett Hospital.

Phillips, 49, was injured Wednesday when his late model car was struck in the right side by a truck loaded with gravel. Accident occurred as Phillips was attempting to turn onto Happy's main street. The truck, traveling south on highway 87, hit his car in the intersection, according to investigating highway patrolmen.

Phillips was a resident of Stratford, Oklahoma, and was a crane operator. He had been working in this area on a grain tank construction crew.

A member of the Penticostal Holiness Church and Masonic Lodge, Phillips is survived by his wife, Parolee and two sons, Norris Lee and Gary, all of Stratford, four brothers, three sisters and his mother, Mrs. Laura Phillips of Stratford.

LaGrone Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gill and Mr. and Mrs. G.C. Crosby have returned from Creede, Colorado, where they spent several days vacationing. They were there for the first snow of the season in Colorado.

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

Mary Caballero

It's Fair time again! When you start thumbing through the catalogues, excitement can build up very quickly. There are so many Fairs close to use to attend in the coming weeks. Each one has so many different departments to enter. The fun of sending an entry is an experience that no one should miss in this lifetime!

The 1961 Fri-State Fair will be in Amarillo on September 18 through September 23. There will be twenty different departments to enter. (Arts, Horses, Cows, Pits, etc.) In the amateur arts & crafts, china painting and ceramis are elegible. Mrs. R.S. Rue is in charge of china painting. Phone DR2-4761 or DR6-7098 for rules. Mrs. Albert Partin is in charge of the ceramics. Miss Maude L. Fletcher is in charge of the Fine Arts Committee. In this department there are numerous divisions. There will also be a Photography Department. Mr. J.S. Edwards of Edwards Studio will be in charge of this department. The entries for these departments should be inquired about before the fifthteenth of September. There are many homemaking divisions. So see, you really don't have to have a prize pig, cow, or horse!

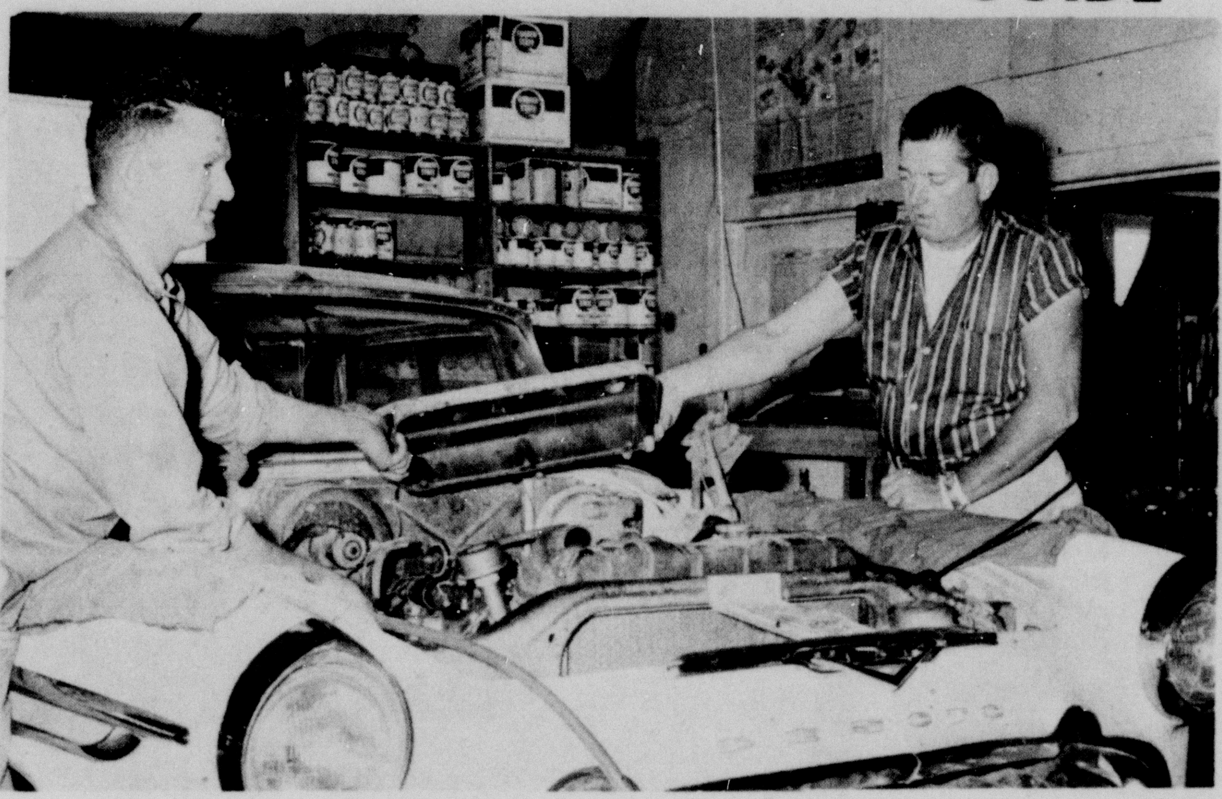
If you happen to be in Oklahoma City, there will be the State Fair of Oklahoma from September 23 to October 29. You will have the opportunity to see the Annual Exhibition of Southwest American Art. This work is chosen from an 8-state area. The jury has already made the selection for this exhibition.

In Lubbock, the 44th Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair will run from September 25 through September 30. This group sends out a very exciting catalogue. There are dozens of divisions of art, crafts, sculpture, relics, antiques, flowers, textiles (this has 9 different sections) and culinary, plus a special youth department. This is a Fair that should be worth a special trip to Lubbock, Texas!

Then there is our collosal State Fair of Texas. This starts October 7 and lasts through October 22. The Women's Premium List is sensational. They publish their own catalogue of divisions one can enter. Everyone feels inspired to send in at least one antique or crocheted doily. There are different deadlines for entering the different divisions. In Dallas, during the State Fair, the Dallas Fine Arts Museum will be conducting their most exciting exhibition of the year. The Thirteenth Annual Texas Crafts Exhibition plus the very special Texas Painting & Sculpture Exhibition will be shown during the Fair dates--and much more, too.'

Cotton candy and caramel apples seem to be calling. Let's go!

CANYON BUSINESS REVIEW and BUYER'S GUIDE



RANDALL MOTOR CO. HAS EXCELLENT SERVICE

This week the Canyon News visited with Jay Gilham, owner of Randall Motor Co. In 1946, Jay started with the company when it was located down town and owned by T.S. Stevenson, Sr. He worked there until 1950 when he purchased the business and he has been there ever since. Randall Motor is the franchised dealer for Plymouth & Valiant in Canyon. They also held the DeSoto franchise until this past year, when Chrysler Motor Co. dropped DeSoto from its production lines. Probably the main thing Randall Motor is known for is its shop. One of Canyon's largest service businesses is found under their roof. Under the expert guidance of Gilham, 2 top automotive repairmen, Merle Pitt and Glen Dorris can handle any minor or major mechanical disorder. They specialize in motor rebuilding, guarantee all of their work and have been trained at the factory. This well equipped shop includes a Bear Wheel Aligner, a complete generator rebuilding department and a complete line of auto glass. Gilham also reminded us of their wrecker service, the emergency telephone number being OL5-3747. Randall Motor Co. is open 5 1/2 days a week 8:00 to 6:00 and until noon Saturdays. Buffalo Outlook Bright

Prospects are better this year for a winning Buffalo football team West Texas State College Coach Joe Kerbel told Canyon Lions Wednesday.

Kerbel said his staff has done a fine job of recruiting and the Buffs have some good material this season.

In fact, Kerbel said the word has gotten around that West Texas State recruiters are becoming choosy.

The WT Coach asked his listeners to join the Quarterback Club and the BAM Club. BAM Club members donate a dollar a month for use in recruiting and other extras connected with producing a football team here.

Kerbel introduced his assistants. They include Coach Jack Harris, Billy Willingham, Dick Mansburger and John Roberts.

Mrs. A.L. Crossland has returned from Paris, Texas, where she has been visiting with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Claude Kennedy who is ill.

Gary Foster and Don Guill visited recently in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. John Winters. John is in Dallas to attend Mortuary school.

Judy Taylor has returned to Austin where she will attend the University of Texas. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buddie Taylor of this city.
